LOA (Letter of Explanation)

Dear Concerned,

My Name is, I am currently working in Also, my goal is to establish a strong(career) in current or future posts. To accomplish this, I would like to continue the further study that can give me international value and a degree that Canada offers. My purpose is to serve this education in my home country (for your business or work better position). Since my home country is still developing, I see lots of opportunities here for myself and my family in the future. Being from a business study background I always wanted to do

In order to ensure my (career growth)(further) I have searched for a diploma course in my country. But unfortunately, the number of institutes I have found is not good in quality to achieve the expected knowledge and experiences. Besides that, there are few institutes that are globally well recognized. So, I have become interested in taking a diploma degree in Business studies outside the country. In this regard, Canada is undoubtedly one of the most developed countries and I choose this country to study for some specific reasons such as its comprehensive and competitive educational system, worldwide recognition of degrees, diverse cultural experience, and high standard of living. I have got a chance to study for a diploma in (Specify your university name that accepts your admission).

Why do specific schools write 1/2 sentences about that university or province?

I will return to my home country after completing my course successfully. Because I am confident that having a foreign degree I can take my career one step further. Besides, home ties and assets.

To fund this endeavor, I was able to get sponsored by my parents (sponsor letter should be attached). My bank acc balance is $45k CAD which is enough to pay my entire tuition and also my living expenses so that I could focus only on my education. (entire tuition fees +$10,000/per year + add any additional family mem for $5k + $5,000)

At last, I wanted to commit that I will successfully complete my graduation also I am fully aware of Canadian immigration regulations. Finally, I will leave Canada before the end of my authorized stay.

I appreciate your time and would gladly provide any clarification if needed.

 study gap explanation, family spouse kids, any travel history, any foreign degree.**
